

VORYS IS OUT IN A STRAIGHT STATEMENT

No Fight on Foraker—
Senate Open to All
Aspirants

[By Telegraph to The Age]
Hot Springs, Va., July 18.—The purport of a statement issued by Arthur I. Vorys, manager of the national Republican campaign in Ohio, which he declared ought to be satisfactory to all persons concerned, is that the manager of the national campaign will not interfere with the election of a United States senator to succeed Mr. Foraker.

"I have no candidate for the senatorship," said Mr. Vorys. "This is and has been Secretary Taft's attitude respecting the senatorship. He stands where he always stood, determined not to promote any one's candidacy or to place obstacles in the way of any one who wants to be a candidate. The fight for the national ticket in Ohio has been and will continue to be divorced from the senatorial fight, which stands on its own merits. There is no concerted effort on the part of The Taft men to defeat Foraker. Senator Foraker in a statement made recently in Washington put it right when he said that we should proceed to elect a Republican legislature. After that the question of who ought to be senator can be settled. Everybody ought to be content to stand on that proposition, and I endorse it."

Mr. Vorys sees Judge Taft daily and discusses conditions in Ohio. He has not yet decided when he will leave Hot Springs, and may remain here for several days.

Judge Taft's mail continues to increase so that it is daily making greater demands upon his time in attending to correspondence that must have his personal attention.

M. E. Ingalls, formerly president of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, arrived here and is occupying his cottage near the Homestead. He is almost constantly upon the golf links while here, and he and Judge Taft played against George Ingalls, who, after giving them a handicap, came out even at the end of the match.

DUN FINDS BUSINESS STEADILY BRIGHTER

[By Telegraph to The Age]
New York, July 18.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says: Improvement is slow, but there is definite evidence of progress in the right direction. One of the best signs is the agreement upon lower wage scales without a struggle, assuring resumption of much idle machinery that would have been impossible without adjustment to altered conditions. Current retail trade is of fairly good proportions for the season, and inventories indicate that recovery is not menaced by heavy stocks. Preparation for fall and winter trade is most active in the west, but there is a growing feeling of confidence that is stimulated by progress on the farms. More business is coming to the steel mills, whose operations are still along conservative lines. Sentiment is improving more rapidly than actual conditions, as shown by the rapid rise in price of securities of this industry. The common stock of the largest producer attaining the highest quotations of 1908 thus far. Sales of pig iron are not large, but numerous small orders aggregate a fair tonnage, the largest contacts coming from eastern cast iron pipe interests. Moderate orders for structural steel and railway equipment are reported, and the only decreased activity is at hot mills of the tin-plate plants, which have run ahead of finishing departments.

Lad Broke Collar Bone

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Huff on East Main street fell from the porch last Sunday injuring his shoulder badly. The parents thought it to be only bruised and did not take him to a doctor until Thursday when they noticed his shoulder drooping. He was taken to Dr. Lear who found the collar bone broken. The lad is suffering severely as a result of going without having it set for several days.

Two Startling Snake Stories KEENE MAN KILLS REPTILE THAT MEASURES SIX FEET

Joe Norman, of Keene, has the honor of dispatching the biggest snake that has been killed in Coshocton county for many years. It measured six feet long and had an average circumference of six inches, and was not a black snake as might be imagined, but a peculiar looking reptile of a sort of black and brown mixture. Close inspection showed that each scale was black and had a brown edge. He found the monster in his back yard and thus far no one has been able to determine what kind of snake it is.

SPECIAL RATE TO BIG TAFT DAY JULY 28

To accommodate a number of local Republicans who are planning to go, the Panhandle today announced a special excursion rate to Cincinnati and return July 28 on account of the official notification of Judge Taft there that day. The rate is $5.65 and will be on sale July 26, 27 and 28. The notification of Judge Taft is to be a most auspicious event and the eyes of the country will be turned on Cincinnati that day. Coshocton and the rest of Ohio are especially interested for it is to be a big day in Buckeyedom.

Here From All Corners of Nation

Mr. Heinke and Mr. Pratt, of the Meek Co., have been busy this week coaching the eleven new salesmen. Their territory is as follows: A. F. Chilcote, Eastern New York; Walter D. Coughle, New Jersey; C. Graham, Dallas and Fort Worth, Texas; S. E. Hamlett, Indiana; C. H. McCullen, North and South Carolina; J. C. McMichael, Kansas; A. L. Marks, Louisiana and Eastern Texas; J. M. Miller, Milwaukee; J. D. Ottley, Oklahoma; C. K. Ray, Western New York; D. G. Wood, South Dakota.

Mrs. Henry Rolson is convalescing after a serious illness of several weeks duration.

Doctor to Open Hospital

The Age gets it today from an authentic source that a prominent Coshocton physician expects to establish a hospital in a central location in Coshocton this coming fall, and that he will be ready to make his formal announcement in a few days. It is understood that he and his associates have their eye on a fine residence that will be leased for a term of years and equipped in the most modern method at a considerable outlay. Thus with the new Clow Emergency hospital, Coshocton will have what it has long yearned for, not only one, but two modern and complete hospitals.

GOMPERS IS PUZZLED

Says He Never Sent Pleading Message to Hearst.

Erie Pa., July 18.—President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor states that there is absolutely no truth in the report that he had cabled William F. Hearst, a leader in the Independence league, urging the editor to use his influence to prevent the league nominating its own candidate for president and to urge the league to support William J. Bryan, because the Denver convention incorporated in its platform planks urged by organized labor. Mr. Gompers said: "I read in the newspapers that I am credited with asking Mr. Hearst to support Bryan and that Mr. Hearst has made reply to me through the press. Now I did nothing of the kind. I do not know where the message Mr. Hearst claims to have received came from. I did not send it or any message to Mr. Hearst."

A report came to The Age office this afternoon that Mrs. Howard Lawrence of Wills Creek had been bitten by a copper-head snake. It is impossible to reach Wills Creek by telephone today so the particulars could not be learned but it is understood that her condition is very serious.

CITY LET OLD GAS POSTS JUST ROT TO PIECES

The days when Coshocton was lighted by gas lamps stuck up on posts on the street corners were called to mind Saturday morning when the remnants of the old gas lamps, which have been stored in the basement of the city hall for many years, were carried out and hauled to the dumping ground. The frames were rusted and cob-webbed and many of the glass panes were broken. It is said that the city has had opportunities to sell the lamps but the price offered was too low. So they kept them till they became worthless, entailing the expense of hauling them away.

All Liverymen to Get Chance

The R. F. D. mail carriers state that no price has been fixed yet to be paid for furnishing the horses for carrying the mail. The local liverymen will be given an opportunity to bid and the committee appointed at the meeting Thursday night will report at a meeting to be held in the near future.

Chicago Chapter Is True.

Chicago, July 18.—The Chicago police records show that in August, 1904, Edith Hanna was shot by her husband, who was known as Edward Walton, at 81 Peoria street, and that she died two days later. The shooting followed a quarrel resulting from some demand made on the woman by Walton, the nature of which was not known. Walton fled and was not arrested.

Not Known at Birmingham.

Birmingham, Ala., July 18.—Inquiry at the sheriff's office concerning the negro Edward Walton, alias Frank Johnson, who confessed to killing a man at Blossburg, Ala., near here, elicited no definite information of any such crime. There is no record of Walton being wanted here.

MOTHER DASHES INTO BURNING HOME FOR BABE

The three-year-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Corder, who reside west of Conesville, came very near being burned to death Friday. Mrs. Corder had been out to a neighbor's. Sparks from a cook stove set fire to some clothing hanging on the wall. When she returned the fire was burning briskly. In her excitement she started to run back to the neighbors for help but thought of her little baby asleep in the adjoining room and rushed back and carried it out. The damage was small and the insurance was in the Lamberson & Herbig agency.

FOOT PIERCED BY OLD NAIL

J. C. McNary met with a painful accident Friday evening while tearing up the floor in the city prison preparatory to putting in the new plumbing for which C. A. McNary was awarded the contract. He stepped backward onto a sharp nail which ran through the sole of his shoe and pierced a deep hole in his foot. It will probably be several days before he fully recovers from the injury.

BUCKEYE LAKE IS MECCA OF COSHOCTON

Getting Ready for Big
Outing Wednesday
August 12

"Buckeye Lake" is to be the slogan henceforth. At a joint meeting of the library board and the advertising committee last night initial steps were taken to boost the big excursion with a big B, and make it the banner crowd on Wednesday, Aug. 12, that ever left Coshocton on a similar outing. For some time there has been public demand for a shorter run than the big excursion has been taking, and this year the library board heeded that demand and expect to carry a bigger crowd than ever before.

In fact a most delightful trip is offered. The trains will leave the local Panhandle station early in the morning, making the run to Newark in one hour or a little less. Passengers will disembark at Newark, walk a little less than a block to where the big interurban cars will be waiting for them, and then comes a most charming trolley ride through beautiful scenery, eleven miles to Buckeye Lake. The grounds there are delightful. No body of water in the state is more inviting than Buckeye Lake, with its myriads of boats of all kinds. Everybody that goes over wants to be sure and take the trip around the lake on the motor boats. Then there is a monster rink with the finest floor in the state, big bathing beach with a "shoot, the chutes," fine dancing pavilion right on the lake shore with an orchestra of ten pieces, merry go round, roller coaster, etc., to say nothing of a big free attraction that Manager Harris is planning for Coshocton day. There are restaurants and hotels all around the lake and there is a particularly pretty park right along the lake shore that is cool and shady with a seductive breeze where basket picnics are going to be very popular. The run from Coshocton to the lake is just one hour and a half and you will get the feeling fresh and happy instead of being dusty, dirty and tired out. The return trip will also bring you home at almost any early hour you may want and the customary long delay of the last train will be unknown.

Everybody who has been going on the annual picnic is going this time—especially those who have heretofore stayed at home because they didn't want a long tiresome train-ride.

Monster posters will be put up all over the county next week and everybody will get in line for a monster outing Wednesday Aug. 12 at Buckeye Lake.

Who She Is

C. Homer Durand has at last consented to divulge the identity of the woman who is playing the leading feminine role in "Sympathetic Souls" at the Sixth Street theatre this week. She is Ruth Chandler, an actress of considerable experience gained in such company as "The County Chairman," "The New Dominion" and several of the better stock companies of the middle west. She happened to be in Coshocton for a few days rest and consented to go on to oblige Mr. Durand.

To tell the truth she is recovering from an operation on her throat and there were times in last evening's performance when she came near being overcome by sheer physical weakness but it was not apparent in the excellent work she did.

In spite of the fact that the manuscript was not in her hands until 11 o'clock Friday morning she was better perfect in her part that same evening.

Mrs. Chandler will go on again this evening with the company.

Quarrying has begun for the two stretches of new road between Coshocton and Keene. Contractor Kiser is taking stone from the hill just above the ice house for the Spink's road and Turner and Keisey who have the contract for the rock for the Keene macadamized road have started first quarry at the left of the road a short distance below O. R. Crawford's.

GIFT OF BOOKS IS VALUABLE TO LIBRARY

Nearly 100 volumes of a valuable and ancient edition of Rees' encyclopedia has been presented to the public library by Dr. C. W. Frew. The books are to be rebound and will be placed in an alcove for public use. They were published in 1818 and while they give a vast amount of valuable information, there is considerable of a curiosity about them, as they do, for instance, the information that the state of New York has appropriated a considerable amount of money and expect to dig a navigable canal from Lake Erie to Hudson's river which the book thinks will develop New York state and greatly increase the population. It also says that Canton is a town in Stark county, with 846 inhabitants. It is one of the most interesting gifts the library has ever received and the board of trustees are grateful to the donor for his spirit of generosity.

Corn Crop Better Here

"Corn looks better in Coshocton county than anywhere else along the Panhandle line" remarked a business man to The Age today. "In Franklin and Licking counties the corn looks stunted and thin, and you can almost tell the minute you cross the Coshocton county line, it is so much taller, so much better developed and of a healthier shade of green."

Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good." Dr. Pierce's medicines will exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial, for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle wrapper—no secret, no home-poison, hence it therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Insist on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for women's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve it is unequalled. It won't satisfy those who want "booze," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, which the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to meals. Much imitated but never equaled.

AGED CITIZEN DIES AT ORANGE

J. L. Wolfe, aged 72 years, died at his home near Orange Friday evening at 6 o'clock after suffering for a long time with Bright's disease. He had lived near Orange almost all his life. He is survived by a wife and three children. The funeral services will be held at the late home Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Rev. Senter will probably be in charge. Mr. Wolfe has one brother and one sister living, both of whom reside near Orange. They are Hiram Wolfe and Mrs. Joseph Kline.

The Remedy That Does.

"Dr. King's New Discovery is the remedy that does the healing the others promise but fail to perform," says Mrs. E. H. Pearson, of Auburn Centre, Pa. "It is curing me of throat and lung trouble of long standing, that other treatments relieved only temporarily. New Discovery is doing me so much good that I feel confident its continued use for a reasonable length of time will restore me to perfect health." This renewed cough and cold remedy and throat and lung healer is sold at C. E. Anderson's, Coshocton and C. M. Ferguson, Roscoe, 50 cents and $1.00 Trial bottle free.

The Man of the Hour

By Albert Payson Terhune

Bennett walked away, leaving the little judge to stare after him, pink with wrath, speechless with amazement. In all his sixty years no man had thus laid bare to Newman his own heart, stripped of its garments of respectability and self-deception. And, as usual in such cases, now that the truth had been driven home to him, Newman wrathfully denounced it, even to himself, as a lie.

Still flushed and incoherent, he wheeled to face a trio who were just returning from the supper room. They were Dallas, Gibbs and Wainwright.

"Hello!" exclaimed Wainwright in surprise. "What's the matter with you, judge? Are you ill?"

"If Mrs. Newman should come to know of this," sputtered the judge, glaring from one to the other, "she"—

"To know of what?" queried Gibbs.

"What has happened?"

"Happened?" fumed Newman. "I have been insulted—grossly, vulgarly insulted!"

"Insulted, judge?" repeated Dallas. "By whom?"

"By Alwyn Bennett!" snapped the judge. "Outrageously!"

"Impossible!" exclaimed Dallas. "There must be a mistake somewhere. Mr. Bennett is too well bred to insult any man, much less a man so much older than"—

"A gentleman, is he? I should not have believed it. He has insulted me most!"

"I'm not surprised," observed Wainwright.

"I am," announced Dallas.

"Naturally," sneered Wainwright. "If you can remain on speaking terms with him after his abominable treatment of me you can easily overlook any other brutality of his."

"Tell us about it, judge," interposed Gibbs, seeking to avert any further clash between uncle and niece.

"I went to him," began Newman, "bearing a request from—from"—

The judge paused. It was not wholly easy to present matters to this honest-eyed young girl in such a way as to bring her in his way of thinking. But Wainwright felt no difficulty. His shrewd brain caught at a means of turning the affair to account.

"You see, Dallas," the financier broke in, with a warning glance to Newman, "I begged the judge to intercede for me with Bennett, to ask him to bury the hatchet and let us be friends again for the sake of old times. I thought Judge Newman's age and his high office would compel a certain respect even with a man of Bennett's character. But I was wrong, and I am sorry, judge, for the unjust humiliation I caused you."

"I don't understand," said Dallas, looking in bewilderment from one to the other. "Judge, my uncle sent you to make overtures of peace? And Mr. Bennett refused to?"

"He not only refused, but called Mr. Wainwright a highwayman and"—

"Just why?" demanded Dallas.

"He pretended to misunderstand what I said about the conditions."

"Oh, it was a conditional offer, then? I thought"—

"Certainly there were conditions," cut in Wainwright, again coming to the emissary's rescue. "I asked that he take a position of neutrality in regard to this Borough bill. Simply neutral, mind you. Not to change his attitude in its favor, or not."

"That was a splendidly fair offer," cried Gibbs enthusiastically.

"So it seemed to me," agreed Newman, "but Bennett would not listen when I tried to point out his proper line of duty. He called me a go-between and"—

"Even after you told him we were granting practically all the concessions he had asked in the bill?" queried Gibbs.

"Yes," said Newman. "He must have some motive behind it all. I can't!"

"Nonsense!" exclaimed Dallas. "What ulterior motive could he have?"

"That is more than I know positively," returned the judge mysteriously.

"But I do," declared Wainwright, pointing at Dallas. "There are the reasons!"

"I?" exclaimed Dallas, incredulous. "Explain, please."

"Willingly," replied her uncle, "if you'll give me a fair hearing. Bennett is in love with you. He knows Gibbs also wishes to marry you. He knows, too, that Gibbs' fortune depends on the success of the Borough franchise. If the bill is beaten, Gibbs will be practically ruined and thus in no position to marry. We've known all along of this reason of Bennett's for fighting our bill, but Gibbs forbade me to tell you. He was afraid you might think he"—

"I don't believe one word of it!" cried Dallas, her big eyes ablaze. "Alwyn Bennett could not stoop to such a thing."

"No?" said Wainwright. "Then you probably will refuse to believe what I am about to tell you now. I consider ed Borough stock a safe investment, and I put all your money and Perry's in it. Bennett knows this, and in spite of the knowledge he is trying to kill the franchise even on the certainty of beggaring you and Perry along with Gibbs. If only he can ruin Gibbs he cares nothing about making you and Perry paupers too. That is the sort of man you are defending against your own uncle. I have just learned besides that he has secretly, through his brokers, sold large blocks of Borough stock short. Thus his veto that ruins us will make him a very rich man."

"It isn't true!" affirmed Dallas in dogged certainty. "Mr. Gibbs, do you confirm this story of my uncle's?"

"Please leave me out of this, Miss Wainwright," answered Gibbs gently. "I prefer to say nothing to prejudice you. When I fight I fight fair."

"Even at the cost of all your money," amended Wainwright. "Gibbs, this is carrying your sense of honor to an absurd point. And Bennett will!"

"Pardon me," broke in Alwyn, entering the foyer and going up to Dallas. "I'm a little late for our dance. I was detained by"—

"Alwyn!" exclaimed Dallas in relief. "I'm so glad you came here just when you did. Now we can clear this up in a word."

"Clear what up?" queried Bennett, glancing about in suspicion at the three silent men.

GET TOGETHER

Under this caption the West Lafayette Indicator prints a pertinent editorial that is well worth perusal. It runs as follows:

"Get together" is a motto every town should blaze over its town hall and every citizen over his desk. "Get Together."

Our sister, Coshocton, is what she is in the industrial world because of her citizens' ability to get together. Coshocton can vote a ship canal through Roscoe hill, with deep water docks right up to the city hall, and the same day sell enough lots to coax a half dozen Dutch cheese factories over from Holland.

The ability to get together is everything. Any town is the result of the combined efforts of its progressive citizens less the pullbacks. Two plus one is three. Two minus one is only one.

West Lafayette people, as a rule, have a pretty happy disposition toward all progress, better living, better everything—probably above the average. Recently she accomplished a $12,500 lot sale for the college, no small feat for a 1,000 population town. But every town has its liver complaints to impede progress along any line—knocking without cause or indifference.

There will always be those who will bump the factories and the men who take the big financial risks therein to make payrolls for everybody's benefit, for no greater reason than some one connected with the same stepped on my dog's tail.

There are those who would rather have a watering trough with moss on it and a nice big bull-frog in the middle than the educational and other influences of a college about their children.

There are those who will say unkind things of the churches because some member plays poker or sail damn it, when his calf got into the garden, in spite of the fact that they would never consent to have their children brought up in a town without churches.

From the giving of a Fourth of July celebration to the landing of a great enterprise the extent of the success all hinges on that little motto, "Get Together."

The sound of the hammer and saw, the smoke of the big stacks, the size of the stores, the college yell, the laughter of happiness, the broad gauge spirit of its citizens, depend upon a town's ability to appreciate that little motto, "Get Together."

Stole a Rig From Eckert's Barn

Ernest Eckert, formerly of Coshocton, who is now in the livery business at New Philadelphia, is looking for two well dressed strangers who hired one rig of him and another at Gibbs Bros' barn Thursday morning. Friday Gibbs received a letter from Pittsburgh saying that his outfit was at a livery stable in Sherodsville. The other has not been located. The two men are thought to be the same ones that tried to fleece John Hing, a Meektown farmer, on the old fashioned brace game Friday morning. Hing caught onto the game and notified the police from a bank where he went ostensibly to draw $5,000.

WHY SO WEAK?

Kidney Troubles May be Sapping Your Life Away, Coshocton People Have Learned this Fact.

When a healthy man or woman begins to run down without apparent cause, becomes weak, languid, depressed, suffers backache, headache, dizzy spells and urinary disorders, look to the kidneys for the cause of it all. Keep the kidneys well and they will keep you well. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and keep them well. Here is Coshocton testimony to prove it.

John Shaffer, retired veteran, North Fifth street, Coshocton, Ohio, says: "I suffered with pain across my kidneys and my back was so lame I could hardly move about. The kidney secretions bothered me greatly and I would have to get up several times at night on account of their frequent action. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me and I procured a box at Siegrist & Williams' drug store. I noticed relief from the first few doses, so continued taking them. My kidneys have now become normal, but occasionally I have a slight twinge or two in my back. I am still using Doan's Kidney Pills and in a little while expect to be entirely cured."

Last week was a very busy one in this vicinity especially on Thursday when two threshing machines were at work not a mile apart, three or four men and a boy in one meadow and three men in another and two in another, all of them almost together in sight of one another in the Mohawk valley and the painting of the M. E. church was being done by men of the town and several farmers and three local carpenters were further up the valley building a barn, and painting and roofing going on in town. Even Pastor Corneil was helping paint the church. Who says laborers are scarce at Mohawk? The county commissioners have advertised the sale, to lowest bidder, for graveling of a mile of the Nellie and West Bedford road from north to south of our village.

Some very good and much-needed rains are falling these days. The first one came Sunday afternoon accompanied by some small hail and much wind that blew down the corn quite a bit.

DEPUTY FALLS IN ATTACK ON TRAIN

Alabama Miners Fire Upon Incoming Strikebreakers.

RAPID FUSILLADE FOLLOWS

One Thousand Shots Exchanged and Many of Attacking Party Fall—Reports Tell of Other Serious Riots in Strike Districts—Governor Rushes Troops to the Scene.

Birmingham, Ala., July 18.—In an attack upon a train bearing strikebreakers to take the places of striking miners at Jefferson, near here, Robert Gardner, a deputy marshal, was fatally wounded, and a dozen miners more or less seriously shot. The train was in charge of 13 deputies, and was en route to Adamsville. It is said the union miners attempted to induce the strikebreakers to leave the train and threatened to kill them if they went to work. Governor Comer has ordered a company of cavalry from Montgomery to the scene, and troops already on the ground are under arms and will patrol the district, preventing further disorders.

Deputy Gardner, mortally wounded, was brought to Birmingham. Deputy George Smith, accompanying him, estimates that no less than 1,000 shots were fired by both sides in the attack at Jefferson.

According to Smith, the engagement was opened when a train bearing 50 strikebreakers attempted to leave Jefferson for Adamsville. Prior to this a number of miners had made overtures to the strikebreakers to join their ranks, threatening at the same time to kill them in case they attempted to work the mines of the operators. In this emergency the deputies attempted to have the train run out of Jefferson under fire if necessary. An open switch, however, brought the engine to a stop, and in this predicament the deputies and strikebreakers were fired upon.

Bullets riddled the train, and that many men were not injured and killed is due to the fact that they fell to the floor and remained there. Thirteen deputies returned the fire, and they declare that at least a dozen miners were either killed or seriously wounded. At this juncture Gardner fell mortally wounded.

The engagement was brought to a conclusion when the engine, having been repaired, was enabled to make headway.

Governor Comer has placed the troops of the state in the hands of Sheriff Higdon, and he will order out as many men as deemed necessary.

The home of William Safford, a negro, was dynamited at Pratt City and partially wrecked.

A report was received at the sheriff's office that a pitched battle had taken place at Blossburg and that numerous men had been killed or wounded. The state troops are now enroute to this place, and if the guards, as is reported, are in distress, they will soon be relieved.

Blue Print of New Bridge

An immature picture of the Main street bridge was put out into the sunlight by County Surveyor Lock and Homer Swihart Saturday morning in order that a blue print might be taken from the drawing. There are nine arches to the bridge making nine piers. Mr. Beck hopes to have the plans ready to submit to the county commissioners in a short time.

Heat prostrates the nerves. In the summer one needs a tonic to offset the customary hot weather Nerve and Stomach depression. You will feel better within 48 hours after beginning to take such a remedy as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Its prompt action in restoring the weakened nerves is surprising. Of course you won't get entirely strong in a few days, but each day you actually feel the improvement. That tired, lifeless spiritless feeling will quickly depart when using the restorative. Dr. Shoop's Restoratives will sharpen a failing appetite; it aids digestion; it will strengthen the weakened Kidneys and Heart by simply rebuilding the worn-out nerves that these organs depend upon. Test it a few days and be convinced. Sold by C. E. Anderson, Coshocton and C. M. Ferguson, Roscoe.

E. church, and was witnessed by forty friends and relatives including the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority sisters of the bride. The lawn of the Sullivan home decorated with field daisies and illumined by the soft light of Oriental lanterns, made a lovely background for the scene. The bride was simply dressed in white French batiste. Her gown was made princess style and trimmed with baby Irish and Valenciennes lace. She carried white sweet peas. She was attended by her sister Miss Eleanor Daugherty, who came from St. Louis, Mo., to be present at the wedding. Miss Eleanor wore a white gown with yellow trimming and carried daisies. Mr. C. A. Armstrong was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Spence left last evening for a lake trip. Upon their return they will be at home at 119 West Ninth Avenue.

Musical Was an Artistic Success

Thoroughly artistic down to the smallest detail was the concert given at the Church of Christ Friday evening, by Mrs. Julia Cronin Kott and Miss Annetta Champanois, assisted by Miss Eleanor Brooks, Mrs. B. F. Voorhees and Miss Delia Speckman—a group of artists of whom Coshocton people are justly proud.

The numbers were all delightful and it is difficult indeed to single out any for special mention. Miss Kott's beautiful lyric soprano, Miss Brooks' rich contralto have both been heard times without number by Coshocton lovers of good music but never to better advantage than last night; it goes without saying that Mrs. Voorhees' accompaniments were faultlessly played.

Not so familiar to Coshocton audiences is Miss Annetta Champanois whose piano solos were played with a brilliancy of technique which promises great things for the future; her selections were well chosen and played with artistic ability.

Miss Speckman read delightfully, her numbers ranging from some deliciously funny things by James Whitcomb Riley down to the music of Kipling's beautiful "Envoi" and each number delightfully given.

In fact the program was one of the most pleasing of any given in Coshocton and was thoroughly enjoyed by the audience gathered to hear it.

The recital was given under the auspices of Delta Alpha class.

His Horse Was Stolen

Locking the stable after the horse is stolen is about as same an act as trying to grow hair after the head is bald.

If the hair root be absolutely dead, permanent baldness will be your lot, and you might as well cheer up and tell your friends that it isn't so bad after all, as to bemoan your fate.

But is your hair is just beginning to thin out; if the thought occurs to you that in a year or two you can take your seat in the bald-headed row without being asked for credentials, then you've got a chance, and a great big chance.

If your hair is falling out or thinning out, don't wait another day; go to C. E. Anderson, the druggist, and get a bottle of Parisian Sage, the most efficient hair grower the world has ever known.

Don't say, "It's the same old story; I've heard it before," but try a bottle at C. E. Anderson's risk.

He guarantees Parisian Sage to grow hair, to stop falling hair, to cure dandruff, and stop scalp itch in two weeks, or money back.

Parisian Sage is the most invigorating hair dressing made. It is antiseptic; it kills all odors that are bound to arise from excretions of the scalp during the hot months, and everyone knows that sage is very cooling to the scalp.

Parisian Sage is a rhyme favorite with discriminating ladies, because it makes the hair lustrous and luxuriant. Get a large bottle from C. E. Anderson for only 50 cents, or by express, all charges prepaid, from the American makers, Groux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

POWER

When You Want It

Is the modern idea of running machinery.

With an electric motor for each machine the power runs just when each particular machine does—when you stop that machine your expense for running it stops.

INDIVIDUAL ELECTRIC MOTORS

Cost much less to install than a power plant of your own, and they can be operated to better advantage.

There is no waste power.

A MOTOR is always ready—day time—night time—overtime—all the time. There is no delay—no waiting for the engineer—no overtime to pay.

Walters and Son are doing the slating, and Manning Sprague and men are painting the old parts of the building and the lathes are at work.

Monday morning the writer went out on the roof deck and spent an hour drinking one of the finest rural scenes in America. If there's anything prettier in the land-cape line, we'd like to see it.—West Lafayette Indicator.

AVOID THE KNIFE.

Cutting Won't Cure Piles—Internal Treatment Needed.

A gardener doesn't kill weeds by cutting their tops. He attacks the root. Just so with piles—the cause is within, entirely out of reach of surgical instruments, ointments or suppositories. The only cure for piles is internal, and the only guaranteed internal remedy is Dr. Leonard's Hem-Roid. It has cured 98 per cent of cases, and 24 days' treatment is sold for $1 at C. E. Anderson's. Sold under positive guarantee. Or mailed by Dr. Leonard's Co., Station B, Buffalo, N. Y. Write for booklet.

For All People All The Time.
Some people like a certain dessert sometimes; other people like it all the time, but you cannot get all the people to like it all the time—unless it be Nabisco Sugar Wafers, for which you never grow taste-tired. This luscious, palate-pleasing confection is indeed ideal for every sort of social function, whether as a dessert or to be nibbled with the punch or the ices. Nabisco Sugar Wafers take the place of candies and sweets, blending deliciously with ices and coffee and most happily completing either a sumptuous dinner or an afternoon tea.

DOCTOR ADVISED USE OF CUTICURA

After Other Treatment Failed—Eczema in Raw Spot on Baby Boy's Face Lasted for Months—Cried with Pain when Washed.

ECZEMA WAS CURED AND HAS NEVER REAPPEARED

"Our baby boy broke out with eczema on his face when one month old. One place on the side of his face the size of a nickel was raw like beef-steak for three months, and he would cry out when I bathed the parts that were sore and broken out. I gave him three months' treatment from a good doctor, but at the end of that time the child was no better. Then my doctor recommended Cuticura. After using a cake of Cuticura Soap, a third of a box of Cuticura Ointment, and half a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent he was well and his face was as smooth as any baby's. He is now two years and a half old and no eczema has reappeared. I am still using the Cuticura Soap; I think it is the finest toilet soap I ever used. I keep my little girl's hair and face cleansed with it too. I am so thankful for what Cuticura has done for us. Mrs. M. L. Harris, R. F. D., Alton, Kan., May 14 and June 12, '07."

STORY IS DISCREDITED

Investigation Proves Part of Murderer's Confession a Fake.

Moundsville, W. Va., July 18.—Frank Johnson, a negro, was hanged at the West Virginia penitentiary for the murder of Mrs. Bentah Martin at Gypsy, W. Va., on March 3 last. A sensational feature of Johnson's last day was a confession made to the chaplain of the prison, the Rev. H. B. Sanford, in which Johnson said he had committed five murders during his career. The following is a list of his alleged victims: Unknown man in 1896 at Blossburg, Pa.; John H. Hanoah, Chicago, in 1901; a woman of Shippensburg, Pa., in 1906; a woman, name unknown, at Steubenville, O., on Nov. 16, 1907; Mrs. Bentah Martin, colored, of Gypsy, W. Va. in March, 1908. In his confession Johnson says his real name is Edward Walton, and that he was born in Georgia.

Steubenville Scouts Story.

Steubenville, O., July 18.—No evidence can be found here that Frank Johnson, who was hanged at the Moundsville (W. Va.) penitentiary, ever murdered a woman here, as stated in his confession. No one was murdered or found dead here, so far as can be learned, on or about Nov. 16, 1907. His story of wholesale murder is scouted by the local authorities. A colored family lives at 132 South Seventh street, but they know nothing of the alleged crime. About four years ago a colored woman was killed at that address, but supposedly by her husband, who escaped and has never been found.

Good Sport at Short Matinee

Rain and a muddy track spoiled the matinee races Friday but three heats were pulled off.

Barcroft's Harry C won the Class A pace in two straight heats. Conger's Lady M finished second and third; Kline's Lady K finished third and second. The time was 1:18 and 1:15 1-2

McGuire's Nellie won the only heat of the Class B pace. Jennings' horse was second and Austin's Major third. The time was 1:23

J. T. McNamee was starter; Foster Bible and Holderbaum were judges; and Knobe and Hoagland were timers.

The races did not start till after 2 o'clock and the running race was called off on account of the rain

MRS. CUNEO AGAIN STARS IN GLIDDEN TOUR

Mrs. Andrew Cunéo, who is well remembered in Coshocton since the Glidden tour's went through her last summer, saved herself and three other occupants of her car from death under the wheels of a fast flying freight train near Albany, N. Y. yesterday. She is the only woman driver again this year.

Just after leaving Coldenham, N. Y., she steered her car around one of the dangerous hairpin turns and opened the throttle to shoot ahead the flagman who waved at her the right of way.

The track was hidden from view of the occupants of the machine and as the flagman had given the signal the big car shot along.

When within thirty feet of the crossing a huge locomotive pulling a fast freight train rounded the curve and bore down on the crossing.

Without pausing an instant Mrs. Cunéo slapped on the brakes and skidded her car up against the towering gates. The heavy machine shoved them but the locker wheels had got into their work and the motor came to a stop within three feet of the rushing locomotive.

Mrs. Cunéo never turned a hair nor showed a trace of excitement as she let in her clutch and continued on her way coming in on the tick of the watch and with a perfect score.

Four teams are now left with perfect scores in the race for the Glidden cup, namely, the Marmon trio of the Bay State association, the Pierce trio of the Buffalo club, the Peerless team of the Columbus club and the mixed team of the Chicago club.

FRED COMPTON DOES SOME CLEVER ACTING

"Sympathetic Souls" was put on by Durand & Co. at the Sixth Street last night and it is one of the keenest satires ever seen on the local stage. Another brilliant bit of Coshocton ability was again uncovered, this time in Fred Compton who gave one of the smoothest portrayals of a character part yet seen. Mr. Compton possesses undoubted ability, absolutely and completely losing his personality in the part he played. He read his lines well, never forgot his character and gave a most finished interpretation. Mr. Durand too shone brightly as the aged barrister, doing clever character work. Miss Powelson as the maid was easy and made considerable out of a small part. The surprise of the evening however, was the leading lady who will also go on again tonight. Miss Robinson—or is her name Smith?—is a clever actress and Mr. Durand is fortunate indeed that she was visiting friends here this month and finally consented to go on just to help him out. In fact Miss Jones—or is her name Brown?—is a finished actress and was thoroughly in rapport with the weeping widow character she assumed. The voice of Miss Jenkins—or is her name Billings?—is remarkably pleasing, showing modulation that is the result of careful study and training. The truth is that the public was greatly pleased with the acting of Miss Hawkins—some say that her name really is Burke—and the house will be packed to the doors tonight, drawn not only out of curiosity but also wanting to see the finished performance of a really clever satire, abounding in palpable hits.

Hays and Mayfield were a delight as usual in their act, the singing of the latter being far above the vaudeville average. The pictures were excellent.

TROLLEY MEN IN BEST OF SPIRITS

The local promoters of the new electric railway from New Philadelphia to Newark, Col. F. C. Richards, M. Siebold, A. W. Reise and F. G. Kuenzli, made a trip over the proposed right of way Wednesday Thursday and Friday of last week, and have settled some puzzling points in the matter of route and right of way. The big hill difficulty at Coshocton was overcome by the help of a party of farmers and citizens who advised a route that the committee adopted. Coshocton people treated the committee well. Between that city and Newark there was a farmer's joking and the closer the party got to Newark the more anxious they found the people to lend them aid. One farmer volunteered a free right of way and a $500 cash subscription. It is likely that the survey will be made in the near future, as every thing is ripe for it.—Tuscarawas Advocate.
